
Subject: Re: Memory Management again
Posted by Sten on Fri, 14 Dec 2007 14:50:25 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

„Guaranteed“ (barrier) means any application in the VE can use the memory, „burst“ (limit) is the very maximum value of memory taken; memory between barrier and limit can be used by applications running under root only.

2147483647 is the maximal value of 32-bit unsigned integer, so if you're running 32-bit system, it's the maximum allocable memory of the OpenVZ.
