As of now, OpenVZ git repository at git.openvz.org are now hosting source code for vzctl and vzquota utilities. You can view the latest changesets and browse code online at <http://git.openvz.org/>.

As a side note, I'd like to add that we have switched to GNU GPL for those utilities. GPLed versions are not yet released, but will be very soon.

On behalf of openvz team,
Kir.
