Subject: Re: On boot adjustment for /etc/hosts
Posted by maratrus on Mon, 24 Mar 2008 13:56:32 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Hi,

try this workaround.

1. Please take the latest version of vzctl.
2. Start your VPS.
3. Change /etc/hosts with your need.
4. Stop the VPS and then just comment or remove the string "HOSTNAME="test2"" from /etc/vz/conf/VEID.conf file.

After these manipulations /etc/hosts file inside VPS shouldn't be changed.