After some time the public IPs on my VPS's stop working. The only way to make them work again is to delete and readd the IP with vzctl.

Is there a way to fix this or to fix the routing or arp entries manually without doing the above?