Is it possible to run a KDE Desktop accessible through vnc in a vps? If so, please suggest appropriate steps to do it.

I'm using an x86_64 system which complicates the issue a bit. Some of the template management software doesn't yet work on x86_64.