Hi alltogether!

I tried the whole day to make the opensuse x86_64 template work correctly. Network is running with veth. But now that I wanted to start software installation/deinstallation I was confronted with the message of a missing libc6 (64-bit). I tried some installation sources, but none of them worked.
Host system is a debian.

Does anyone know, how this was created?

Thanks,
Stefan