I recently ordered a VPS at VPSVille. They kick butt!

I have no association with them, besides being a satisfied customer.

John,

This is support forum, not a place to link to your favorite HSP. If you like to, please add them to the proper place, i.e. http://wiki.openvz.org/Hosting_providers

I have removed the link from your original post. Feel free to add the link to wiki.

Sorry I spammed the forum.

I finally found a good provider and got excited. I won't do it again.
