Subject: ols mini-summit is on

I announced this last week at the bottom of a long email, but figure it deserves a separate announce :)

Unofficial word from the OLS folks is that the containers mini-summit is on. So far we don't yet know whether it will be on monday or tuesday, but it is happening.

I've updated http://wiki.openvz.org/Containers/Mini-summit_2008 with a start to an agenda. Please feel free to make updates or email proposed changes to the agenda.

See you in Ottawa!

Can you also add, libcg aka userspace explotation of control groups/resource management to the agenda?

Thanks,
