Hi,

I am new to OpenVZ and want to try OpenVZ on 'UltraSparcIIIi'.
Can somebody tell me whether OpenVZ works on 'UltraSparcIIIi'

System Configuration: Sun Microsystems sun4u Sun Fire V240 clock frequency: 167 MHZ Memory: 2GB

Thanks
ravkr

Why would you want to run openvz on a UltraSparc? Openvz is somewhat an implementation of zones that is native on Solaris, and you can even run LDOMS on Solaris. Go with solaris and use zones or LDOMs.
