OpenVZ looks very slick. I'm glad to see SWSOFT has stepped up to the plate and opened up Virtuozzo. So when did all this happen? The posts and info on OpenVZ.org imply sometime in the last three months.

Just curious.

I would assume that it officially started around August 07 2005, because that is when openvz.org was registered. The first announcement on this site was dated August 10th 2005.
