I think it's safe to say this list will not work out, as emails take several days to be delivered. We have created a new list called containers@lists.osdl.org. Please subscribe to that list and let's use it for containers discussions. The openvz and vserver lists will be automatically subscribed unless we are asked not to.

To subscribe, please visit:

https://lists.osdl.org/mailman/listinfo/containers

This list (lxc-devel@lists.sourceforge.net) will be shut down.

thanks,
