Hello, Eric!

I see that you quite busy and there is no reaction from Dave for your latest portion of netns patches. Right now, me and Pavel are working exclusively for mainstream.

May be we could bring a torch from your hands and start to push Dave Miller even with IPv4 staff. 3 weeks passed, no reaction for you latest code. Looks like it has been missed somehow... I even have to stop my fingers every day from touching a generic structures like flowi :)

Regards,
Den
