I announced this last week at the bottom of a long email, but

Unofficial word from the OLS folks is that the containers mini-summit is on. So far we don't yet know whether it will be on monday or tuesday, but it is happening.

I've updated http://wiki.openvz.org/Containers/Mini-summit_2008 with a start to an agenda. Please feel free to make updates or email proposed changes to the agenda.

See you in Ottawa!
