Hello all,

if I want to put some banner over page hosted on OpenVirtuozzo's VPS is it legally to get a banner <virtuozzo powered> from bottom of this site pages and use them with link to openvz.org ?

No, OpenVZ and Virtuozzo are different products, so you should use "OpenVZ powered".

I can provide a source of the banner at the top of the page (in .svg or .ps) so you could create some artwork out of it. If you are interested, please ask.

Some artwork is attached here.

SVG file is created in Inkscape, PNG (938 x 238) is exported from it.

And this is 'OpenVZ powered' button I have just created using GIMP. It's quick-n-dirty; probably your designers can do it better.
