Subject: any plans when 2.6.15 branch is expected to get stable?

I read your announcement (01/31/2005) about the development branch 2.6.15. Do you have a rough plan when this branch is expected to become the stable branch in OpenVZ and Virtuozzo?

I don't expect it within the next months - and I now that it is ready when it is ready - but it would be interesting whether you plan it for this year or not before 2007.

Thanks,
Werner Fischer
